Nam Cat Tien National Park 2 Days from Saigon

Cat Tien National park is one of Vietnam's most important and largest National Parks, it is mostly situated at the northern edge of South - Eastern region of Vietnam, but includes Southern edge of the Central Highlands. The park covers 71,920 hectares of lowland forest and swamp and is home to numerous birds and mammals.

Itinerary

DAY 1: Ho Chi Minh city (Saigon) - Cat Tien National park (L,D)

07.30 Departure by car from Saigon to Cat Tien National Park. The terrain rises up gradually via volcanic area. On arrival, we cross Dong Nai River to the park center and begin your wildlife experience.

11.30 Check in room at the park center. Lunch break.

In the afternoon, go on a three-hour trek through the Reserved Core Area where you will see many trees of different species that are hundreds years old. Then return to the center for dinner

20.00 Jeep transfer to TaLai buffer zone for animal spotting (view animals at night).

DAY 2: Cat Tien National park - Saigon (B,L)

Wake up to the uplifting songs of the native birds. After a good breakfast, Jeep transfer 9km inside the park to junction where we turn off the main route and trek 5km to Crocodile lake station. Short break at the lake watch tower. Then trek back to the main route. Jeep pick up, transfer back to the center. Check out. Lunch in the park before heading back to Saigon.

Leave Cat Tien Park. Ferry crossing the river. Transfer by car to Saigon.
